Day 2

Oman Tour in Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, Muttrah

After breakfast, check out of your hotel and drive through the beautiful embassy area of Muscat toward the Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque. Visit this magnificent mosque, a landmark in Muscat, where the splendor of distinct Islamic architecture is apparent (please note there is a strict Islamic dress code). Finished in 2001, this mosque is considered the primary mosque of Oman and is one of only two mosques in the Sultanate that non-Muslims can visit (the other being in Salalah). It is a prominent highlight in many Oman tours and a must-see stop on cultural Middle East holidays. Gaze at the second-largest handmade carpet in the world and huge chandeliers installed in the main prayer hall, details admired by travelers on luxury Middle East tours and insightful tours to Middle East.

On the way back from the city center to the old town, you will pass by the Opera House only concert hall in the Gulf. From there, go for a visit to the 16th-century forts of Jalali and Mirani, often admired by those on extended Middle East trips. Following that, have a relaxing walk around the old town quarter and stop for a photo at Qasr Al Alam, His Majesty Sultan Qaboos's official palace, utilized mainly for official purposes.

Then, go on to Bait Al Zubair Museum, which is teeming with exhibits and information on the country's culture, traditions, and heritage. This enriching experience is often part of curated Middle East tours and a favorite for travelers enjoying Middle East vacations. Afterward, continue to Muttrah, the charming quarter of Muscat. Famous as one of the most beautiful Oriental markets in the Gulf States, Muttrah Souq is a must-see. Enter the fish market and walk along the Corniche to admire the beautiful merchant houses while shopping at the busy souk, a perfect ending for many trips to Middle East, as well as a unique contrast to urban Dubai tours. Finally, return to your hotel.

Explore Nakhl Fortress, Hajar Mountain

From 08:00, depart from the hotel with your guide in a 4x4 for the trip to Nakhl fortress and Al Thowara oasis. You will explore the date palm groves and natural springs of the oasis and visit Nakhl, a hilltop 17th-century fortress that commands wonderful views of the surroundings. This type of experience is commonly featured in Oman tours and is a favorite among those on immersive Middle East holidays.

Then, continuing on a mountain track into the Hajar Mountain Range toward Wadi Bani Auf, there are spectacular views and good campsites once the dirt track runs west along the ridge. Such natural beauty and cultural heritage are often part of high-end luxury Middle East tours and traditional tours to Middle East. You can also visit a centuries-old mountain village there, a highlight for those seeking authentic Middle East trips. Return to Muscat late in the afternoon.
