Know More about Nubian Culture in Aswan

Best Destination Tours offers you a splendid experience to enjoy while you're in Aswan during your Egypt holidays: Visit the Kalabsha Temple and the Nubian Museum. Originally built by Thutmose II and Amenophis II at Kalabsha, 40 miles south of Aswan, the temple was later restored during the Roman conquest. Round off your traveling tour with a long overdue Nubian Museum trip. The museum, which opened in 1997, boasts thousands of antiques rescued from the waters of Lake Nasser. This name is derived from the ancient Egyptian word "Nbu," which means gold, and this in reference to the ancient and widely known gold mines in the region. Experience scenes of modern Nubian life depicted through a variety of life-size displays. Be sure to visit the best places in Aswan during this memorable journey.
