Day 1

Explore Cairo With Islamic And Coptic Cairo Tour

The full-day tour of Old Cairo kicks off with Garbage City, where the visitors will learn and see the really interesting ways the community is taking care of itself by recycling. From there, it would be to the Cave Church of San Simon, a remarkable cave church in the center of Garbage City. Later, proceed to Coptic Cairo, where old churches such as the Hanging Church are located together with the Coptic Museum. Then visit the Citadel of Saladin, an ancient fortress that has a beautiful view of Cairo and the Mosque of Muhammad Ali from above, with stops for a traditional Egyptian lunch. Then walk about Al Muez Street, appreciating the Islamic architecture as part of a Cairo Islamic tour, then into the lively Khan El Khalili Bazaar, the oldest market in the Middle East. Returning at the end of the tour to your hotel, you would be enriched by a wonderful experience of a greater understanding of Cairo's culture and history gained through this authentic Cairo Islamic tour. This is one of many excellent Cairo sightseeing tours that showcase the city's rich heritage.
