Itinerary

Day 1
Top Luxor Day Tour in East and West Banks

An air-conditioned van will be waiting at the hotel in Luxor for a private Luxor day tour of East and West Banks. The tour will commence from the Valley of the Kings, one of Luxor attraction. Three selected tombs of Royal burials will be visited, each having corridors, an outer room, and a chamber sunken for sarcophagus placement. All are drilled into the same kind of Limestone, another special thing to do in Luxor while exploring Ancient Egypt. Next on your Luxor West Bank tour itinerary is the grand Temple of Hatshepsut, dedicated to the world-famous female Pharaoh. Then, gaze upon the colossal statues of the Colossi of Memnon, in front of what used to be an entrance to a temple that no longer exists.

After lunch at a local restaurant, continue your Luxor day tour to the East Bank, where you will be impressed by the expansive Karnak Temple complex, which includes three main temples and several smaller enclosed temples, an iconic stop on any Luxor East Bank tour. This journey is a perfect example of Egypt day tours and offers a real dive into Egypt's rich past. Finish your tour at Luxor Temple, built by Amenhotep III and located just south of Karnak.

After a full day of ancient wonders and memories to cherish, we promise to get you back safely to your hotel after a day trip to Luxor. Do not miss out on this incredible Luxor adventure tour. Book a private Luxor day tour of East and West Banks and see the magic of Thebes!
