Day 3

Cairo - Alexandria

Following breakfast, you will meet your Egyptologist tour leader in readiness for your visit to Alexandria, the second capital city of Egypt, home to the famous Citadel of Qaitbay. If you're wondering what to do in Alexandria in one day, this tour has it all! Apart from Qaitbay, you will also visit the Roman Catacombs of Kom El-Shoqafa, believed to have begun in the 2nd century A.D.; Pompy's Pillar, probably erected around the year 300 by the Roman Emperor Diocletian; and other remains in the vicinity, including the Alexandria Bibliotheca, a famous library with cultural significance. A lunch stop will be made, and you will check in for the night at the Alexandria hotel.

El-Alamein and the Military Museum

After finishing breakfast, head to El-Alamein Commonwealth Cemetery, which comprises numerous cemeteries and memorials to honor the dead from the battles of different nations. It has a church, a mosque, and a small museum, as well as a German exaltation and an Italian cemetery. You will also visit the Military Museum, which consists of five halls, with murals in the main lobby that tell war stories and sculptures of the leaders of the enemies at war. After this, you will visit additional cemeteries of the Italian, German, and Australian nationalities. Your afternoon Egypt trips to Alamein in Cairo will then come to a close, and you will be transferred back to Cairo.

A Flight to Luxor

After breakfast, your guide will transfer you to Cairo International Airport for your flight to Luxor (Thebes), which was the capital city of Egypt in the New Kingdom and is referred to as the world's largest outdoor museum. As part of many Egypt tour packages, your visit will begin with the Luxor Temple, built for the worship of the god Amun, his wife Mut, and their son, who was also represented in the shape of the god Min, a god of fertility. You will then explore the Karnak Temple complex, constructed by Pharaoh Amenhotep IV. Check in at the Luxor hotel.

Luxor West Bank Tour

On the 6th day of your ongoing trip, you will explore the western bank of Luxor, one of the most famous tourist places in Luxor, and enjoy an 5-star Nile cruise, visiting the Valley of the Kings, which houses around 63 royal tombs where the New Kingdom's kings and pharaohs are laid to rest peacefully. Afterward, you'll see the statue of King Amenhotep III, also called the Colossi of Memnon, an impressive twenty-meter-high statue of the king himself. Then, you will be taken back to your hotel in Luxor for the night.

Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

Have breakfast, and then check out before you commence a visit to the Temple of Edfu. A temple dedicated primarily to the god Horus, the Edfu temple is one of the most magnificently decorated and constructed temples in Egyptian history, dating back to the 2nd century BC. Afterwards, continue your Kom Ombo and Edfu temples tour, heading to the Kom Ombo temples, situated on high ground with a beautiful view of the east banks of the Nile. The temple here, associated with the period of Ptolemy VI, is dedicated to the cult of the crocodile god Sobek and to one of the aspects of Horus, who was worshipped in Kom Ombo. Return to Aswan and transfer to the hotel for check-in and an overnight rest.
