Itinerary

Day 1
Arrival in Luxor

Upon your arrival at Luxor Airport, our dedicated tour guide will be there to greet and assist you, transfer to the hotel, dinner & overnight.

Day 2

East bank visit / West bank visit

Possibility to do the Hot Air Balloon in Luxor at sunrise time, have breakfast in the hotel, and then enjoy some of the best Egypt vacations. Afterward, pick up from the reception by our expert tour guide Egyptologist to visit the great temples of Karnak & Luxor. For lunch, enjoy it on the Dahabiya, followed by a visit to the most important sightseeing in the world, the Valley of Kings. Our tour guide will take you to visit three different royal tombs in the valley, then head to the Queen Hatshepsut Temple. After that, visit the Colossi of Memnon on the West Bank, and later transfer to Esna for check-in to the Dahabiya, where you'll enjoy lunch, dinner, and overnight accommodations.

Day 3

Esna / Edfu

Barely cresting the horizon, daytime is just greeting the banks of the Nile. The boat glides gently toward Edfu. Breakfast depends completely upon your time. The destination is impressive- the temple of Edfu, one of the largest and most preserved monuments in Egypt. Boarding horse carriages, tour members journey to the temple entrance, where two massive granite statues of the Falcon God Horus tower in silent vigil. Explore the grand halls and sanctuaries of the temple and bask in the history and architectural wonders of ancient Egypt. Back to the hotel.

Day 4

El-Silsila - Mainha

After breakfast, we move on to the Gebel El-Silsila temple visit, where the secrets of the unknown sacred rock temple of Hormoheb and the well-known sandstone quarries of ancient Egypt will undergo exploration. Along the way, you'll also get a chance to see some of the incredible Aswan attractions. Then we set off to Mainha Island for a barbecue dinner with traditional drumming and folk songs by a crackling campfire. Wonder and fill the memory books beneath a blanket of stars.

Day 5

Kom Ombo

After breakfast, we race toward Kom Ombo in sheer amazement while exploring the extraordinary temple of Horus and Sobek, examining its symmetry and dual sanctuaries dedicated to the Falcon God Haroeris and the Crocodile God Sobek. Continuing the journey, we come to Daraw City, the embodiment of the camel market. Here, one gets to see the auction that draws over 20,000 camels-the show itself is something you will never forget. After lunch, we sail away on a Nile cruise from Daraw to Kobaniya which takes around five hours by picturesque route. Ending the cruise with a Nubian party for a happy farewell to our memorable time on the Nile.

Day 6

Kom Ombo - Aswan

You shall set out on another voyage to Aswan to appreciate the city's heritage. We commence with a morning trip to the famous High Dam before crossing the original barrage over the First Cataract. Next, we go to the fascinating Aswan granite quarry, where we get to see the glorious Hatshepsut's unfinished obelisk. The highlight of the day is a boat trip to the lovely Temple of Philae, dedicated to the goddess Isis. In the midst of all this, consider the variety of Egypt honeymoon packages available to enhance your experience. In the afternoon, we continue on board feluccas to the Botanical Gardens, which were once a sanctuary for the exotic flora collections of Lord Kitchener. From shaded pathways in the gardens, we enjoy the scents and the sights of various bird life. The return trip by felucca is just a calm conclusion to a day, ending with a nice dinner on board.
