Itinerary

Day 1
Arrival at Cairo International Airport

Your adventure begins with an extraordinary Egypt and Jordan tour, considered more of a multi-country tour package than a simple sightseeing tour, especially for the inquisitive traveler. Your tour manager will meet and assist you at Cairo International Airport with arrival formalities. Accompanied by your tour manager, you will be transferred to your hotel in a private air-conditioned deluxe vehicle. This, by all means, is the beginning of one of our masterfully created multi-country tours where the magic of Egypt is blended seamlessly with that of Jordan in a single journey. The check-in formalities will also be handled by the tour manager in your hotel, who will further brief you on the holiday pack that is part of our multi-country vacation packages. They will also confirm with you at that time the pick-up times for each tour. From cultural exploration to landmarks, this is probably among the most rewarding multi-country visits. So get ready for an awe-inspiring experience ranging from the highlights of Egypt to the unknown treasures of genuine Jordan tours.

Day 2

Visit Giza During Your Egypt and Jordan Tour

After breakfast in the hotel, you will be transported by your private guide to the Giza Plateau to commence the exploration of one of the Seven Wonders of the World, the Great Pyramids of Giza. Being part of our meticulously designed Egypt and Jordan tours, this is just one of the highlights of your journey. You will also see the famed Sphinx and the Valley Temple; these are important sites on a number of our multi-country tours. Lunch after the visit to the pyramids is served at a traditional Egyptian restaurant, followed by a trip to the New Grand Egyptian Museum, sometimes called the Giza Museum, an archaeological treat located just minutes from the Giza pyramid complex. These activities attract travelers eager for enriching multi-country tours and culture-oriented multi-country vacation packages. Return and relax in your hotel, then continue your adventure through Egypt and Jordan. If ancient wonders or the buzz of local cultures are what you're after, then these multi-country holiday packages and our carefully curated multi-country trips strike the perfect balance between history and comfort.

Along with iconic spots and genuine cultural experiences, this Giza Pyramids tour also interfaces with our comprehensive Jordan tours.

Arrival at Queen Alia Airport, Jordan

Post breakfast, you will leave for Cairo International Airport for your onward flight to Amman as your journey continues on this well-loved Egypt and Jordan tour. Upon arrival at Queen Alia Airport, a representative will meet you and assist you at customs and immigration so that you may enjoy a seamless multi-country tour package experience. Transfer to the hotel for an overnight stay in Amman, which is a usual halt in many of our immersive multi-country tours and multi-country vacation packages. Now, whether you choose to explore these enriching multi-country holiday packages or visit vibrant cultural and heritage sites on your multi-country trips, our expert-guided Jordan tours will surely leave you with unforgettable memories.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 8

Full Day in Jerash, Dead Sea

After having breakfast, you are transferred to Jerash, met at the base of the Gilead mountain range, as part of our immersive Egypt and Jordan tours. The ancient city, which is said to be one of the largest and best-preserved remains of Roman architecture outside Italy, unfolds before you as you walk through the colonnaded street, past the Nymphaeum and Temples of Artemis, which are among the major highlights usually featured in our multi-country tour packages. Let's head off later on into the Dead Sea, the lowest point on Earth, and the most famous resort, which has found numerous mentions in multi-country tours and multi-country vacation packages. This natural wonder is registered among those visited in multi-country holiday packages as it attracts visitors from mineral-rich mud that is widely utilized for therapeutic and beauty treatments; renowned historical figures such as Queen Cleopatra and Sheba have basked in that mineral mud, too. The salinity of the water, being very high, does not support life, as it gained the title "Dead Sea," where floating on the water is such a joyful experience that many others cherish in these unforgettable multi-country trips. Please be ready to float and roll yourself in the mud before we head back to Amman along the continuation of your fruitful Jordan tours.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 9

Discovery of the (Red Rose) Petra

After breakfast, a 2.5-hour scenic drive will take one to the Rose Red City of Petra, which stands as the crowning jewel in our Jordan and Egypt tours and the most renowned tourist spot of Jordan. Established during the 6th century B.C. by the Nabataean Arabs, Petra is famous for its facades carved right into the mountain faces, an unmissable stop while choosing a multi-country tour package. Once at the Visitor Center, one will have to walk 700 meters to reach the Siq entrance, the narrow gorge 1200 meters long, proudly displaying multicolored rocks and walls soaring over 80 meters high. An incredibly memorable excitement in many of our multi-country tours lures those wanting an in-depth cultural-historical experience. Emerging from the Siq, the majestic sight of Petra unfolds, considered one of the new wonders of the world, with its grandeur too often for us in our multi-country vacation packages. After exploring, you will go back through the Siq to return to Amman to continue the journey in one of the region's most enriching multi-country holiday packages. Whether combining this with a trip to Egypt or focusing on Jordan tours alone, this is one memory that defines your multi-country trips.
