Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Casablanca - Rabat

From the airport, your local driver-guide will welcome you right at gate 2. It will be a comfortable northbound drive to Rabat, Morocco's capital, and a common stop during Morocco tours and multi-country vacations, where you will be spending the night. From here, the blessed journey through Morocco and Egypt tours, luxury multi-country tours, and unforgettable multi-country trips begin.

Activities: Transfer from Casablanca Airport to Hotel (Rabat)

Overnight in Rabat.

Day 2

Explore the Cities of: Rabat - Meknes - Fez

After breakfast, enjoy touring Rabat on a guided exploration of the historic aspects of the city, with visits to Chellah and Kasbah Ouddaya, popular stops on Morocco tours and multi-country vacations. You will then have some free time on your own to continue walking through the souks and bazaars of the old medina in Rabat before visiting Café Maure alongside the Bouregreg River to indulge in Moroccan mint tea, alongside sweet treats called Kaab Ghazal and Ghariba.

Next, travel to Fez via a stop at the UNESCO World Heritage site of Volubilis, where your guide will highlight the Roman and Berber ruins, a highlight often included in Morocco and Egypt tours and luxury multi-country tours. Next comes a visit to Meknes, also known as the 'Versailles of Morocco.' Here, you will observe Bab El Mansour and Lhri with your local guide; finally, continue onward to Fez, continuing your immersive multi-country trips.

Note: Kaab Ghazal means "hoof of the deer" in Arabic. Mint tea, along with Kaab Ghazal and Ghariba, is the quintessence of the living embodiment of Moroccan hospitality.

Overnight in Fez.
Meals: Breakfast, Tea break.
Local experience: Café Maure overlooking the Bourgogne River.

Day 3

Know More about Fes

After breakfast, take a guided tour of Fez, which was the capital before 1912. Explore Fez Medina, a UNESCO World Heritage Site set up in the 9th century and believed to have hosted the world's oldest university, an enriching stop on many Morocco tours and multi-country vacations. Other major sites to visit include Bou-Inania and Attarin Medersa, the tanneries, Ess-Seffarine Square, the tomb of Moulay Driss, Nejjarine Square, the cabinet makers' souk, and the Hebrew quarter called 'Mellah,' all popular highlights on Morocco and Egypt tours as well as multi-country trips. Enjoy a hands-on pottery workshop with a local artisan to make a truly Moroccan experience. After lunch in a local restaurant, you may relax in your hotel or meander freely through the alleys of the old town, soaking in the charm of luxury multi-country tours.

Did you know? Fez hosts one of the largest Sufism festivals every October, drawing performers from across the world.

Overnight in Fez.
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.
Local Experience: Pottery workshop.

Day 4

Continue Your Multi-Country Trip to Beni-Mellal, Marrakech

After breakfast, your transfer will pick you up, and then you will set off for the imperial city of Marrakech. Passing through the quaint villages of Imouzar and Ifrane gives you intricate insights into the slow-paced village life, drastically different from the hustle in the city, an authentic experience often enjoyed on Morocco tours and multi-country vacations. Later in the day, you will arrive at Beni Mellal, considered one of Morocco's most famous agricultural centers, a unique stop featured in many multi-country trips and Morocco and Egypt tours. And thus, continue your journey to Marrakech. Upon arrival in Marrakech, check into your hotel for the night, ready to relax before the next leg of your luxury multi-country tour.

Overnight in Marrakech.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 5

See the Beauty of Marrakech

Welcome to the enchanting world of Marrakech, a dream for multitudes. After breakfast, the local guide and driver will take you on a city tour of the "Ochre City." Start at Majorelle Garden, created by French artist Jacques Majorelle, a favorite stop on many Morocco tours and multi-country vacations. Then proceed on to Menara, a pavilion surrounded by orchards and olive groves, even though its name means "lighthouse," this charming site is often included in luxury multi-country tours. Later, take a look at the Koutoubia Mosque and the Jewish quarter, Mallah, which highlights that enrich Morocco and Egypt tours, as well as multi-country trips. After lunch at a local restaurant, end your day with a horse carriage ride called "Koutchi" to Jamaa-El-Fnaa, a memorable experience that perfectly captures the spirit of multi-country tours.

Overnight in Marrakech.
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.
Local experience: Koutchi (Horse Carriage Tour).

Day 6

Leisure Day in Marrakech

After breakfast at the hotel, enjoy a free day to discover Marrakech at your leisure. Craft your own experience of Marrakech by mingling with the locals, experiencing the Marrakechi lifestyle, and hunting for the storytellers and snake charmers, an unforgettable part of Morocco tours and multi-country vacations. Let Marrakech charm you back as you explore, a perfect way to enhance your luxury multi-country tours and Morocco and Egypt tours during your multi-country trips.

Overnight at: Marrakech.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 7

Transfer from Marrakech to Casablanca

Enjoy breakfast in your hotel before you leave for Casablanca. Upon arrival in Casablanca, a local guide shall escort you to the Hassan II Mosque, a masterpiece of architecture standing on the Atlantic shore of Casablanca, a popular stop on Morocco tours and multi-country vacations. Afterward, the Casablanca city tour shall continue, touching upon the corniche, the Habous quarters, and the Royal Palace (exterior visit), all highlights often included in Morocco and Egypt tours as well as multi-country tours. This rich cultural experience is a perfect example of what makes luxury multi-country tours and multi-country trips so memorable.

Overnight at: Casablanca.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 8

Departure from Morocco / Arrive in Cairo

Spend the morning at leisure before heading to Casablanca Airport for your flight to Cairo. Your tour manager will be waiting to receive you at Cairo International Airport before transferring you and your group by air-conditioned coach to your hotel. From your landing at the hotel, your tour manager will help you with a seamless check-in process and go through your itinerary to keep your multi-country tours and Morocco and Egypt tours running smoothly. Whether embarking on luxury multi-country tours, multi-country trips, or Morocco tours, your multi-country vacations are carefully arranged for a hassle-free experience.
