Itinerary

Day 1

Welcome to the Land of the Pharaohs

Your Best Destination Tours representative will greet you at Cairo International Airport (arrival procedures) and then whisk you downtown in an exclusive air-conditioned deluxe vehicle to your hotel. Upon arrival at the hotel, your representative will ensure a smooth check-in process and then go over the holiday itinerary, confirming pick-up times for each tour. The perfect start for anybody in search of multi-country tours that balance comfort and adventure. Whether you are embarking on Egypt and Jordan tours, on a larger scale of multi-country trips, or splurging with luxury multi-country tours, this route has been designed to surpass the highest expectations. Both custom Jordan tours and tailor-made multi-country vacations will find this an ultimate choice.

Overnight stay in Cairo.

Day 2

Giza Pyramids tour And Egyptian Museum

After enjoying a delicious and nutritious breakfast at the hotel, your guide will accompany you to the Giza Plateau and begin your tour with a sight of one of the Seven Wonders of the World, the Great Pyramids of Giza. You will also be taken to see the famous Sphinx and the Valley Temple. This experience is a highlight for those on Egypt and Jordan tours or seeking enriching multi-country tours. After you visit the Pyramid, lunch will be provided in a charming Egyptian restaurant before continuing to the New Grand Egyptian Museum, an archaeological museum in Giza about 2 kilometers (1.2 miles) from the Giza pyramid complex. This day is perfect for travelers enjoying multi-country trips or planning multi-country vacations, and it offers a great balance of discovery and relaxation. For those interested in premium travel, it also fits seamlessly into luxury multi-country tours or tailored Jordan tours. Following the museum visits, you will be driven back to the hotel.

Overnight stay in Cairo.

Meals: Breakfast, lunch.

Day 3

Museum of Egyptian Civilization, Old Cairo

After Egyptian breakfast, your expert guide will take you to visit the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization, which interestingly hosts the royal mummies and boasts an extraordinary collection that chronicles the country's rich history. This stop is a cultural gem for travelers enjoying multi-country tours or embarking on enriching Egypt and Jordan tours. From there, you will continue to Old Cairo and witness some of the oldest churches in the country—an ideal experience for those planning multi-country trips or seeking immersive Jordan tours. After lunch at a local restaurant, retain your historical streak by heading towards the majestic Salah El-Din Citadel, where you will enjoy a tour of the colossal Mohammed Ali Mosque and views over Cairo. This day blends perfectly into multi-country vacations, offering depth and variety, and caters equally to those pursuing luxury multi-country tours.

Overnight in Cairo.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch.

Day 4

Depart Cairo for Amman

After having breakfast, your transfer will take you to the Cairo Airport and onward to Amman. This segment is generally offered for those who enjoy seamless multi-country tours or embarking on Egypt and Jordan tours. Once at Queen Alia Airport, a guide from Best Destination Tours will be waiting for you to make the experience smoother for those enjoying multi-country tours or their tailored Jordan tours. You shall be further transferred to the hotel for an overnight stay in Amman, accommodating plenty of space for relaxation and rejuvenation during multi-country holidays or whilst enjoying luxury multi-country tours.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 5

Madaba and Dead Sea Visit

After breakfast, a drive takes you to Mount Nebo, where it is said that the Prophet Moses looked upon the yet-to-be-promised land of Palestine before his death, and where his supposed burial place is located. This remarkable site is often included in well-planned multi-country tours and spiritual Egypt and Jordan tours. Here you may visit the ancient Monastery and observe views of the Jordan Valley, the Dead Sea, and Jericho and Jerusalem, an inspiring moment for those on immersive Jordan tours. Next, we continue to Madaba, an essential city for the famous 6th-century mosaic map of Palestine in St. George's Church, making it a highlight on many multi-country trips. Following this, we travel to the Dead Sea, the lowest point on Earth, coursing with minerals of different healing factors, promoting a high number of health spas, an indulgent stop for those enjoying luxury multi-country tours. The mud is used for healing and beauty treatments, and this destination is a unique wellness feature in our multi-country vacations. Historically, it is said that Queen Cleopatra and Sheba loved this place for its benefits. The name "Dead Sea" comes from high salinity, which means no life exists in its water, and floating is extremely easy! Please prepare yourself for a swim and some mud therapy before we head back to Amman.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 6

Tour of Petra

At a meeting point, your driver will meet you for a two-and-a-half-hour journey to the Rose Red City of Petra, the largest tourist attraction in Jordan. This iconic site is a highlight of many Egypt and Jordan tours and a must-see on any well-crafted multi-country vacation itinerary. Founded in the 6th century B.C. by Nabataean Arabs, the city contains splendid facades carved intricately on the mountainsides, often featured in premium luxury multi-country tours. On arrival at the visitor's center, you will take a 700-meter walk to enter Petra via the Siq, a magnificent gorge of 1200 meters, presenting a riot of color and towering some 80 meters above your head. Petra is also a crown jewel in many expertly guided Jordan tours and immersive multi-country trips. Emergence from the chasm unveils the true grandeur of Petra, one of the New World Wonders that speaks for itself, and makes this journey a cornerstone of our multi-country tours. After your time in Petra, you will return through the Siq and back to Amman.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 7

Fly Back Home

Transfer to Queen Alia airport for your onward flight after breakfast. This wraps up one of the enriching Egypt and Jordan tours, perfect for seekers of memorable multi-country vacations. These unforgettable moments through time and culture must surely have been etched in your hearts, whether coming back from one of our immersive Jordan tours, all-encompassing multi-country trips, or indulging in luxury multi-country tours.
