Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Casablanca – Transfer to Rabat

As soon as you land at Casablanca Airport, our polite local driver-guide will be waiting for you at Door 2 and he will help you with your transfer. After that, you will go to the north of the country to Rabat, which is the capital city of Morocco. The hotel check-in is done and the rest of the day is yours to spend as you like.

Activities: Transportation from Casablanca Airport to the hotel in Rabat.

Overnight stay in: Rabat.

Day 2

Rabat – Meknes – Volubilis – Fez

After breakfast, begin your guided tour of Rabat, Morocco's elegant capital. Discover its rich history as you visit Chellah and the Kasbah of Oudayas. Enjoy some free time to wander through the colorful souks and bazaars of the old medina.

Later, stop at Café Maure on the banks of the Bouregrag River to experience traditional Moroccan hospitality — sip refreshing mint tea and taste local sweets such as Kaab Ghazal (gazelle horns) and Ghariba.

After this delightful break, continue your journey to Fez, stopping first at the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Volubilis. A professional guide will walk you through the impressive Roman and Berber ruins.

Next, visit Meknes, one of Morocco's imperial cities built by Sultan Moulay Ismail, often called the "Versailles of Morocco." Here in Multi Country Tours, explore the grand Bab El Mansour Gate and the Royal Stables of Lhri, two of the city's most iconic landmarks. Arrive in Fez by evening and check in at your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast, Tea Break
Local Experience: Moroccan tea time at Café Maure, overlooking the Bouregrag River.
Overnight in: Fez

Day 3

Fez Exploration

After a lovely breakfast, it is time to begin your full-day tour to Fez, the spiritual and cultural center of Morocco. The city was the capital of the country up to 1912. So, it is one of the oldest Medinas in the world, which has been acknowledged as a UNESCO World Heritage site and is well known for its labyrinthine alleys and ancient landmarks.

In Multi Country Tours you will explore the most important places, that is, Bou Inania and Attarine Medersas, the traditional tanneries, Ess-Seffarine Square, the Moulay Idriss Mausoleum, El-Nejjarine Square, and Mellah, the old Jewish quarter.

The local master craftsman invites you to a pottery workshop to connect with Moroccan art and tradition in a very special way. A local restaurant will serve you lunch after which you will either head back to the hotel or leisurely walk through the beautiful old Medina, exploring at your own pace.

Fun fact: Every October, Fez stages one of the world's most notable Sufi music festivals, which draws in countless performers and visitors from around the world.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Local Experience: Pottery workshop with a local artisan
Overnight in: Fez

Day 4

Fez - Beni-Mellal - Marrakech

You will visit the imperial city of Marrakech after your morning meal. On your way, the small villages like Imouzar and Ifrane will be in your sight. Later, when you arrive at the famous Moroccan agricultural center Beni Melal, you will carry on with your trip to Marrakech. In the evening, you will check in at your hotel where you will stay the night.
Marrakech at night.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 5

Discover Marrakech – The Ochre City

Wake up to the magic of the city of Marrakech, a must-visit city for tourists from all corners of the earth. After breakfast, a whole day of the tour of the "Ochre City" awaits you.

The first place you visit is the Majorelle Garden, the very creation of a French painter Jacques Majorelle who later paved it for Yves Saint Laurent's restoration. Then visit the Menara Gardens, where an orchard is framed by a pool reflecting the Atlas Mountains.

The Koutoubia Mosque, the most acknowledged station of prayer in Marrakech, is next on your list, from where you can walk along and through the Mellah, the former Jewish Quarter. After having lunch at a typical Moroccan restaurant, be picked up in a horse-drawn carriage (Kotchi) for a ride to the lively Jemaa El-Fnaa Square where you will find musicians, storytellers, and artisans exchanging the life of the city.

Fun Fact: Marrakech has the nickname “The Land of the Seven Saints” due to the seven Sufi scholars who were very influential in establishing the city’s religious and cultural background.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch
Local Experience: Horse carriage ride (Kotchi) to Jemaa El-Fnaa
Overnight in: Marrakech

Day 6

Marrakech Free Day

Post-Breakfast, savor a free day to unveil Marrakech at your own pace. Shape your Marrakech experience, socialize with the locals, get involved in the “Marrakechi” lifestyle, seek out the storytellers, the snake charmers and let yourself be won over by Marrakech. Night in Marrakech.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 7

Marrakech - Casablanca

After having your breakfast in the hotel, get ready to leave for Casablanca, the economic capital of Morocco, which is full of life. When you get there, the first thing that you will do is to visit the magnificent Hassan II Mosque, a great piece of architecture that is located right next to the Atlantic Ocean - one of the largest mosques in the world and the greatest testimony of Moroccan skill.

Your Multi Country Tours will continue to the beautiful Corniche of Ain Diab, where you will see the sea promenade full of cafés and palm trees, and then you will go on a panoramic drive through the Habous Quarter, which is famous for its mixed style of French and Moroccan architecture. You will also see the Royal Palace (outer visit) before going to your hotel for check-in and rest.
