Day 2

Day Tour in Rabat

Departure from Marrakech. Following breakfast, there will be a sightseeing tour of Rabat, part of your unforgettable Morocco tours, which will include stops at Chellah and the Kasbah of Oudaya. You will then have free time to walk through the souks and bazaars along the medina. Next, you'll visit the Hassan Tower and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, famous for its magnificent stained glass windows. Afterward, you will be transferred to Marrakech for an overnight stay, continuing your exploration of Morocco's rich history and culture.

Day 3

Marrakech Sightseeing

Breakfast will be served, and your day in Marrakech will begin in the Medina, the oldest part of the city. You will then explore the city on foot, starting with the famous 12th-century Koutoubia Mosque and its impressive minaret, and walking to the opposite side, Jemaa el-Fna square. After refreshing yourself with a glass of orange juice, you will be taken to the Lower Medina to see more of Marrakech's treasures, including some unique Moroccan attractions such as the Saadian Tombs, built in the 16th century and dominated by imposing towers, and the 19th-century Bahia Palace, originally built for Si Moussa, a former slave who became chamberlain to King Moulay Hassan. The palace complex includes a courtyard and riads decorated with exquisite stucco work and Arabic architecture. This day is part of "The Best Tour to Discover Marrakech," which offers an authentic experience of the city's history, culture, and architectural wonders.

Day 4
