Itinerary

Day 1

Marrakech - A Journey of Senses and Wonders

You will be met at Marrakech airport and driven via private transfer to the luxurious Riad Sougtani (historical residence for the most distinguished Sougtani Caid). This lovely riad has an unusual design, the ideal getaway in the middle of the city. Along the way, you will also pass by some of the top 5 tourist attractions in Morocco, immersing yourself in the vibrant culture of the city. Following a cool and refreshing welcome tea, go for a tour of the riad with a relative (who will give you the history). In the spacious gardens of the riad, enjoy a traditional Moroccan dinner at the end of the day before heading back to sleep in your medina sanctuary.

Day 2

The Magic of Aït Ben Haddou-A Journey to the Cinematic Heart of Morocco

As we head for Aït Ben Haddou (a UNESCO World Heritage Site well known for its striking kasbahs and innumerable films), prepare yourself to have your mind blown on a daily! Along the way, you'll discover unique places to visit in Morocco, including the historic village fortified by walls with its large adobe constructions that have appeared in films like Lawrence of Arabia and Gladiator. The journey continues with a drive through the Tizi-n-Tichka Pass, offering breathtaking panoramic views of the High Atlas mountains, and much more.

Aït Ben Haddou is a fortified village where you can see ancient adobe buildings that play a part in a lot of movies (e.g., Lawrence of Arabia and Gladiator) We get to the Skoura Oasis in the late afternoon, for a stunning desert sunset over palm groves.

Dine on a traditional meal and spend the night in a hotel mesmerized by the freshest landscape spots of Morocco.

Day 3

Merzouga - The Gateway to the Sahara

The golden sands of the Sahara Desert await as today we head toward Todra Gorge, a natural wonder made of red towering cliffs. Along the way, you'll experience some of the top 20 things to do in Morocco, including a short stroll through the gorge before continuing our journey towards Merzouga, Erfoud, and Rissani. Merzouga, famous for its towering dunes, is the gateway to the Sahara, where we will embark on a magical camel ride through the dunes at sunset. This evening, you'll experience the desert in luxury with an overnight stay in a lavish desert camp. The star-filled sky will be your ceiling as you enjoy a delicious Moroccan dinner under the open desert sky.

Day 4

Draa Valley - A Path Through Time

Our way continues in the Draa Valley, a palm-dotted and river-driven valley that at one time was the route for these desert caravans coming from Morocco to Timbuctoo. Continue, the journey is full of the best Middle East trips as we pass by valley ancient kasbahs revealing Morocco's vibrant history. As we travel through picturesque villages such as Rissani, Alnif, and N'kob, we'll learn about the history and culture of the region. Afterward, we'll continue our scenic drive through the valley and head back to Ouarzazate, where you'll enjoy another memorable dinner and a peaceful night.

Day 5

Aït Ben Haddou - A Jewel of History and Cinema

Today, we head back to the incredible Aït Ben Haddou (another World Heritage site as a lot of mud-brick and epic movies have been shot there) ensouled amphitheater.

Explore the labyrinthine streets of this walled town, gazing up at row upon row of kasbah, some of which are over 12 centuries old. Following the kasbah, drive to Tizi-n-Tichka pass again and enjoy the scenic beauty before coming back to Marrakech.

After that enjoy a feast in Marrakech, and then chill in one of Marrakesh's biggest hotels.

Day 6

Marrakech - The Pulse of Tradition and Modernity

Marrakech is a city of contrasts, where history and modernity coexist in perfect harmony. We'll start the day by visiting the Menara Gardens, a peaceful oasis in the heart of the city, and the majestic Koutoubia Mosque, with its iconic 77-meter-high minaret. Then, discover

Bahia Palace, the 19th-century architectural gem, and Medina a (UNESCO Heritage site with its bustling souks and animated streets). It should not be missed: Jemaa el-Fna square can get super crowded with snake charmers, musicians, and storytellers making the square a living organism. We can't also miss Gueliz and Hivernage, the new districts where you can experience luxury shopping and trendy cafes. Evening: traditional Moroccan food in the evening so that you can then enjoy the vibrant nightlife of the city.

Day 7

Farewell Morocco

On the last day of your stay, chill out a bit and explore Marrakech one last time. If you love to shop at souks, admire the colors and intricacies of souvenirs, or walk around the streets of the city countless experiences waiting to be had. At the end of the day, our team will be there to make your transfer to the airport and say your parting words from this enchanting land that you will carry in your hearts forever.
