Itinerary

Day 1

Arrival in Madrid

Welcome to Spain! At the airport of Madrid, you will be taken to your hotel for the check-in. For those looking for inspiration for future trips, we highly recommend considering European vacations, such as the 9-day Spain adventure tour with flamenco experience. The rest of the day is free for you to enjoy the high-energy atmosphere of Spain's capital city. Visit vibrant streets, sip a café con leche at some local cafes, or relax in your hotel.

Overnight in Madrid.
Meals: Breakfast

Day 2

Madrid City Tour

The next day, things become more interesting. You begin the day with breakfast at your hotel, after which you plunge into the incredible history, energy, and spirit of Madrid. Our top guide has traveled with you around world-renowned popular places, such as the Barrio de la Morería, and through the Hapsburgs District. Admire the great Plaza Mayor and Plaza de la Villa, where history comes to live over centuries of life. Gaze at the splendid Royal Palace and lose yourself in the fountains of Cibeles and Neptuno, not to mention the great Puerta de Alcalá. This will be probably Madrid sightseeing you are always going to remember. Then we would cross other parts of modern Madrid into the chic Gran Vía and Salamanca districts and the city's commercial and financial heart. Of course, no visit to the capital could ever be complete without including a visit to Santiago Bernabéu Stadium, home of Real Madrid, for the soccer-crazed. To finish the day, you will have an authentic Welcome Tapas Dinner at a restaurant where all Spanish culinary delights are introduced to you.

Overnight in Madrid.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 3

Madrid to Caceres and Cordoba

After breakfast, we commence the journey into the specific charm of the country, starting with Caceres, a World Heritage City, where Roman, Islamic, Northern Gothic, and Renaissance architectures meld into a unique profile. For those planning to extend their visit, Madrid attractions offer a wonderful mix of culture and history. Meander around Plaza Mayor and the medieval maze of Old Town, alive with history at every step.

Reach Cordoba, the earlier capital of the Caliphate-an awe-inspiring pagan touch to Christian overhead arches in splendor.

Overnight in Cordoba.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 4

Cordoba to Seville

This includes having a good breakfast during the early hours of the day before visiting Mezquita of Cordoba (entrance included) for the mosque and cathedral. Roam again through the well-preserved Jewish Quarter with its cramped and irregularly winding avenues whose cascading trail evokes peace and nostalgia. Then, onto Seville, the throbbing heart of Andalusia culture at its best in all its vibrant manifestations.

Night in Seville.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 5

Seville Exploration

Have breakfast before breaking into the beauty of the city through a guided tour that includes visits to most of the major treasures of the city, amongst which arises the magnificent Seville Cathedral, which is the second-largest cathedral in the world, and the historic Santa Cruz quarter, which owes its origins to the inspiration for the tales of Carmen and Don Juan. Stroll through tranquil Maria Luisa Park, then appreciate the grandeur of Plaza de España, which is a cinematic wonder. The afternoon is free to explore Seville's three elements, from tapas to shopping and even watching people in one of the lovely squares.

Night in Seville.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 6

Seville to Ronda and Costa del Sol

We leave after breakfast and set off on a beautiful drive through Andalusia's lovely towns until we reach Ronda. Set dramatically on a cliff, Ronda is full of breathtaking sights of the valley and the mountain range. For those seeking adventure, there are many unique things to do in Ronda that showcase its rich history and stunning landscapes. You could stay exploring this ancient town, dating back to Celtic times, until finally trying an authentic Olive Oil Experience at LA Organic, learning all about Spain's heritage regarding olive oil and sampling the best oils. Then, we are already at the magical Costa del Sol, where you can find sun, sea, and relaxation.

Overnight in Costa del Sol.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 7

Costa del Sol to Granada

After breakfast, we travel to Granada, which holds within itself the sweet Alhambra (entrance included) and Generalife gardens. Visit this Moorish masterpiece, from its fantastic architecture to its fabulous gardens and wonderful views of the Sierra Nevada mountains. For those exploring more of the city, there are countless things to do in Granada, from visiting historic sites to enjoying local tapas. After your visit, free time to stroll through the charming little streets of Granada. In the evening, put on the beat of a true Gypsy Flamenco show as you enjoy a great dinner.

Overnight in Granada.
Meals: Breakfast.

Day 8

Granada to Toledo and Madrid

After breakfast, we proceed to the Imperial city of Toledo, a UNESCO World Heritage city where three cultures- Christian, Jewish, and Moorish- lived together for centuries. Get a tour around the winding, serpentine alleys of this ancient city, visiting some of its breathtaking landmarks and learning about its impressive history. Then, we shall proceed with the journey back to Madrid.

Overnight in Madrid. Meals: Breakfast.

Day 9

Departure from Madrid

Final breakfast while in Spain and transfer to Madrid airport for departure. Leave behind unforgettable moments from Spain's lively cities and their historical treasures and rich culture, including the 9-day Spain adventure tour with flamenco experience.
